

Michelle Phipps Norelli

Earned her MBA from Fairleigh Dickinson University and retired as a senior litigation paralegal from a large New Jersey law firm, following an earlier career as an operations manager in telecommunications.

A dedicated community leader, she served 12 years on the College of Saint Elizabeth Alumni Association Board, ultimately as president. In honor of her late husband, she established the Neil Vincent Norelli Fund for Blood Cancer Patients through the Overlook Hospital Foundation and led multiple fundraising efforts, including participation in the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Light the Night Walk.

She has remained active in community service through her church, local outreach programs, and as a former first responder. As the new Head of Sussex County Shoes That Fit – DE, she plans to expand partnerships with local businesses and churches, pursue grant opportunities, and strengthen support for children in need throughout the county.
